

GIRL SAVES BANK, ROUTING ROBBERS WHO SHOT CASHIER

Thug Tears His Thumb Off in Door of Automobile.

STUBENVILLE, O., Sept. 26.—Sheriff Ed. Lucas and deputies are to-day scouring the countryside for five armed men who shot Cashier George H. Whittaker of the First National Bank at Hopedale, O., fifteen miles from here, and probably fatally injured him in attempting to rob the bank. No money was taken, the robbers being put to flight when Miss Jessie Snyder, assistant cashier, screamed and gave the alarm. Mayor A. D. Finnegan of Hopedale was one of the first attracted by Miss Snyder's screams. He immediately equipped four automobiles with men armed with rifles and pistols, who started in pursuit of the bandits. Although Whittaker is unable to talk, other bank officials state no money was taken, the first of the robbers shooting Whittaker and then rushing back to the machine. The robbers' car was found along the road at Henry, three miles from Marietta, O., late yesterday and Sheriff Lucas reported that his men were securing the wooded section nearby, believing they have the robbers surrounded. The only clue the authorities have is a half a thumb, which the police believe belongs to one of the robbers who is thought to have caught his hand in the door of the auto and amputated his thumb as they made their getaway. The piece of the thumb was found fast in the door of the automobile, which the gunmen abandoned.

COPS MOVED OUT OF REUBEN'S CAFE

His Prosecution in Case Will Go on Just the Same.

Police Inspector James S. Bolan of the 4th Inspection District appeared before Magistrate Simpson in the West Side Court to-day in answer to a summons obtained by Aaron Reuben, restaurateur at No. 2270 Broadway, who charges the Inspector with oppression and alleges that policemen have been illegally kept in the restaurant by Bolan, working in three shifts to cover the twenty-four hours of the day. The police were stationed there after a liquor raid, but when Reuben was exonerated on the liquor charge the police were not withdrawn. Bolan was represented by the Corporation Counsel's office to-day and an adjournment was taken until Oct. 8. Incidentally it was brought out that the police were withdrawn at 11:45 o'clock last night. But William J. Fallon, counsel for Mr. Reuben, said the case would be prosecuted just the same.

If You Want to Marry in Paris Just Wear a Bit of Green Ribbon

But Widows Must Show a Distinctive Color, So as to Reveal Their True Status.

Copyright, 1922 (New York Evening World) by Press Publishing Company.
PARIS, Sept. 26.—The Green Ribbon Club, organized to promote and encourage matrimony in Paris, is now in running order. Hundreds of timid youths and bashful maidens attended a meeting last night and pledged themselves to wear a bit of green ribbon, indicative of their desire to wed. Furthermore, despite the easy sarcasm of the revue writers, such matches will be no hit or miss affairs. Everything will be businesslike and in accordance with the strictest French matrimonial traditions. For the dues of a few dollars each member receives a number, a certificate and the right to attend the reunions, dances, excursions and other diversions that will be planned to direct Cupid's darts. Thus under the screen of perfect anonymity the first meeting will take place. Then, if there is a mutual attraction, each can learn practically everything he or she wants to know of the other. Every candidate will be required to pass a medical examination, furnish a certificate of moral character and present an inventory of worldly goods. Thus when Mr. E-242 falls in love with pretty Miss A-257, he will simply ask the club for her "particulars." She does the same, and all being satisfactory, the two will automatically cease to be members of the club and the marriage rate will have been increased by one. Widows, widowers and divorced persons will be permitted to join, but their ribbons will be of a distinctive color.

DOCTOR GIVES OWN BLOOD TO PATIENT

His Sacrifice Saves Woman
Apparently Doomed.

Mrs. Rose Pasquarella, twenty-six, No. 276 First Avenue, Brooklyn, who is in the Holy Family Hospital, truly may be said to owe her life to her doctor. The woman, mother of three children, was operated on a couple of days ago and yesterday it became necessary to have a blood transfusion to save her life. Dr. Felix Scardapane, the family physician, knew that for a year the husband had been out of work and had just gotten a job. For him to give his blood meant probably the loss of the position. To pay for the necessary life fluid was out of the question. Time was an element to be considered so the physician, ten years ago an immigrant boy, called in Dr. Anthony Timandini and Dr. Joseph Linello to perform the transfusion and himself gave up the quart of blood. To-day the patient is reported on the road to recovery. Dr. Scardapane, looked a bit weak but very happy over the result. He is twenty-six years old and was graduated from Long Island College Medical School in 1921.

DYE PATENT SALE CASE GOES TO NEW GRAND JURY

Application Will Be Made at October Term.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The special grand jury, which was convened last May by Act of Congress to investigate alleged war frauds and which handed down a total of thirteen indictments, after inquiry into sales of surplus lumber and the Old Hickory power plant, was dismissed to-day by United States District Attorney Gordon. He will ask for another special grand jury at the October term of court, and Department of Justice officials are expected to present evidence concerning the sale of chemical and dye patents to the Chemical Foundation, Inc., of which Francis P. Garvan, former Allen Property Custodian, is President.

ASKS RECEIVER FOR CUSACK CO.

No Question of Insolvency—
Mismanagement Charged.

Application for a receiver for the Thomas Cusack Advertising Company, which does a billposting and billboard advertising business in scores of cities throughout the country, with headquarters in New York and Chicago, was made before Vice-Chancellor Griffin in the Jersey City Chancery Court to-day by Clarence R. Costello, a stockholder, of New York City. An order also was asked restraining the company from amending its charter, which it obtained under the New Jersey laws. John Milton, counsel for Costello, told the court there was no question of insolvency involved, as the company showed a balance of $1,760,000 last year and is doing a big and profitable business. Mismanagement is alleged and Costello charges that some of the directors have used their knowledge of the Cusack business to the profit of other concerns in which they are interested. The company has $2,500,000 preferred and $7,500,000 common stock. No date was set for the return of the order.

NEW MILEAGE BOOKS FOUGHT BY RAILROADS

Would Discriminate Against the Public, They Protest.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Railroad representatives began to-day before the Interstate Commerce Commission an attack on proposals to establish a system of interchangeable mileage books for passenger transportation over all lines. By a recent act of Congress the commission was authorized to require the sale of such books by all railroads and to fix a reasonable rate. C. A. Fox, Chairman of the Central Passenger Association, representing 148 railroads, declared the effect would be to give a lower rate to travelling salesmen, theatrical companies and other classes, which would be discrimination against the public. He protested the annual accounting expense alone would be $1,500,000.

BANTON TO FIGHT PLEA OF DIER FOR CHANGE OF VENUE

Has Every Faith in Justice of
New Yorkers—Blume
Pleads Guilty.

District Attorney Banton announced to-day that he would in every possible way combat the application of Elmore D. Dier, head of the bankrupt brokerage firm bearing his name, and under indictment for grand larceny, for a change of venue. Dier's counsel had said that he did not believe his client could have an impartial trial in this county owing to the publicity the newspapers had given to the Dier failure and its ramifications.

Mr. Banton said that he had every faith in the honesty and justice of New Yorkers and has instructed his assistant, Mr. Pecora, to oppose the Dier application when it comes before Justice Wasservogel.

David J. Blume of the bankrupt brokerage firm of Wink & Co., of No. 36 Broadway, under indictment for grand larceny and bucketing, to-day pleaded guilty to one of the indictments before Judge Johnstone in General Sessions. He was continued in $5,000 bail for sentence at the request of Assistant District Attorney Unger. The latter said that Blume would appear as a witness for the prosecution against Harold L. Sonnings, head of the Wink firm, who is now out under $15,000 bail for grand larceny and bucketing of orders.

The complaint against the firm, which failed Jan. 21 last, is Mrs. Nancy Hatch of No. 33 West 47th Street. She alleged that $50,000 in cash was obtained from her and that she lost this as well as profits through bucketing in 1921.

After pleading guilty to the charge against him, Blume went to the office of Assistant District Attorney Schreiber and began making his statement. Judge Johnstone, on application of George Z. Medallie, counsel for Alexander R. Crossman, indicted for grand larceny and bucketing, set Crossman's trial, which should have been begun to-day, for Oct. 3.

DRILL SAFE, GET $1,000 AT HARLEM THEATRE

Robbers Use Electric Light Current to Open Safe.

Using the current from the light sockets of the Harlem Grand Theatre at No. 119 East 125th Street, cracksmen with an electric drill entered the theatre safe early yesterday and escaped with $1,000 in cash and a quantity of postage stamps. The robbery was discovered when Christopher Fishback, caretaker, opened the theatre. The safe had been dragged from the office to the auditorium of the theatre. The robbers had neatly drilled the door of the safe, blowing it open with a fulminating cap. The cracksmen, who are believed to have escaped through a door on the 125th Street side of the theatre, left the drill lying on the carpet of the lobby.
